I am sure that your career has been a major source of professional and personal fulfillment for you, and I know how much you have contributed to your Agency's accomplishments through the years. Your important role in these achievements certainly entitles you to a feeling of pride. I hope that your retirement activities will be as rewarding as the career you are concluding must have been.

My associates have enjoyed their contacts with you, and I want to thank you for your valuable support of the FBI. Your efforts on our behalf have aided us immeasurably in fulfilling our investigative responsibilities. You can be certain that you will be sorely missed by those of my colleagues who have had the good fortune of benefiting from your expertise.

You have our warmest best wishes for every happiness in your retirement.

ENCLOSURE

DRAFT

BY LIAISON

Honorable Robert M. Gates
Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Gates:

This is a particularly challenging period as we look to a new world order combined with potentially major changes within the Intelligence Community.

It seems to me that it might prove to be timely and of great value if those who are the primary actors within the Intelligence Community were to gather for a few days of uninterrupted dialogue about our future.

I found this to be of immense value and am proposing such a meeting this spring.

Should you agree this would be worthwhile, I would be glad to make facilities available at the FBI Academy on the Quantico Marine Base. This would allow a few days of uninterrupted meetings without excessive travel.

Based upon my previous experience, I think such a meeting could be most productive in terms of reaching consensus on our approaches to the challenges ahead, and it is in this spirit that I make this suggestion.

Sincerely yours,

ENCLOSURE

DRAFT

62-80750-7697

February 9, 1992

Honorable Robert M. Gates
Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Bob:

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Jim Geer, Buck Revell and
I were in attendance. I found it to be of immense value and would propose to you that we consider another such meeting within the next few months. It would seem to be timely and of great value to all of us who are deeply involved in the responsibilities of the Intelligence Community.

If you agree, I would be pleased to make the facilities of the FBI Academy available or if you prefer, we could certainly do it again at [REDACTED]

Sincerely,
